

EXPLORING THE ARBORETUM FOR BPS EDUCATORS 2016-2017

Saturday Mornings 9:00 AM-11:30 AM

Join your colleagues for monthly discoveries in our massive, diverse, and beautiful landscape for learning!

Free of charge; Please pre-register for the upcoming workshop: <http://bit.ly/1JolyNe>

For more information contact Ana Maria Caballero or call 617-384-9032

October 1

- Seed Dispersal: Mechanisms of Flight
- Fall Color: How Do Leaves Do That?

November 5

- Go Birding: My Beak is Better Than Yours!

December 3

- Tree Study part 1: Examining Tree Architecture
- Beginning a Science Journal

January 7

- Tree Study part 2: Reading Twigs –What do They Say?

February 4

- Tree Study part 3: Conifer Adaptations

March 4

- Is it Spring Yet? Gathering Phenological Data
- Identifying testable questions for science experiments

April 1

- Life Cycles: Do You Think I Look Like Mommy?
- Explore pond ecosystems

May 6

- What are Flowers? Form and function through dissections with microscopes

June 3

- Diversity of Insect Pollinators

July 8 (second Saturday)

- Looking Under a Log: Exploring the hidden world of soil-dwelling invertebrates
- Decomposers and Fungi: What Is That Rotting?

August 5

- Plant Evolution: Building a Timeline
- Looking at Green Algae, Moss and Ferns

engage in life science learning.

OPEN HOUSE and LANDSCAPE TOUR

Friday, September 9 5 – 7:30 pm.

Light meal provided