

THE ARBORETUM FOR EDUCATORS 2017-2018

Saturday Mornings 9:00-11:30 AM

Monthly explorations in our diverse landscape, with practical applications for teaching!

Free of charge; pre-register at : <http://bit.ly/1JolyNe>

Visit www.arboretum.harvard.edu for more information or call 617-384-9032

October 7

- Fall Color: How Do Leaves Do That?
- Hydrophobicity Lab

November 4

- Seed Dispersal: Mechanisms of Flight

December 2

- Tree Study part 1: Inside and Outside Trees
- Model Making

January 6

- Tree Study part 2: Examining Tree Architecture
- Using a Science Journal

February 3

- Tree Study part 3: Conifers Adaptations

March 10 (second Saturday)

- Is it Spring Yet? Gathering Phenological Data
- Identifying testable questions for science experiments

April 14 (second Saturday)

- What are Flowers? Form and function through dissections with microscopes

May 5

- Exploring Pond Ecosystems
- Life Cycles: Do You Think I Look Like Mommy?

June 2

- Pollinator Diversity
- Flower-Pollinator Interactions Simulation